Master Class climate change and poverty: Module I. Participatory methods in project development and implementation – focus on risk assessment. Leacture/facilitator Rikke Dalsted.

Date: 22 February 2020, Copenhagen, time 11.00 – 17.00
Place: Fælledvej 12, 2200 København

Main learning points
This module aims to introduce the participants and establish an understanding of:

- Introduction to participatory methods for contexts
- How to conduct risk analysis related to own project
- Understanding of the concepts of central concepts of community, capacity and vulnerability
- How to conduct needs assessment together with the involved community
- How to develop and follow own action plan
- How to ensuring community driven development through participation
- How does poverty and lack of resources influence participation?

Program:

11:00 – 11:30	Programme for the day and subject the participants would like to cover Break
11:30 – 12:30	Presentation of the subject:
12:30 – 13:00	Lunch break
13:00 – 16:00	Group work on case studies related to the above mentioned subjects Breaks when needed
16:00 – 16:30	Presentation of group work
16:30 – 17:00	Sharing of main learning points of the day and next step for the participants

Literature
All presentations done by the lecturer will be shared with the participants, except personal photos. Power point presentation made by the lecturer will be shared with the participants on 22rd February after the workshop has been taken place.

Main literature:
Before the workshop it would be beneficial if the participants have read:
Chapter 3, R. Champers, "Shortcut and Participatory Methods for gaining Social Information for Projects", pages 177-199. Skim through pages 177-186 and read pages 187-199. In "Sustainable Development: Social Organization, Institutional Arrangements and Rural Development: Selected Readings" 1997

The reading can be found online
https://books.google.dk/books?id=uo4gAQAAIAAJ&printsec=frontcover#v=onepage&q&f=false

Link to online connection meet.google.com/vvh-tudv-mtn